

Changing Young Lives Appeal

LIFE

is full of promise for Leanne thanks to the Surrey Care Trust.

At just 16, she is bright, bubbly, ambitious and extremely caring towards other young people.

Yet only two years ago her teachers found her so disruptive they said she was impossible to educate.

Then Leanne started attending a Surrey Care Trust learning centre.

We are a local charity working with young people like Leanne who have found it difficult to fit into school.

Without help, they face a future disadvantaged by lack of skills and qualifications.

So we nurture their confidence, raise their aspirations and help them gain the skills needed for work or college.

“Time and time again I was told I would be kicked out of school. I was really cheeky. Now I have changed. I have had a second chance and I want to make the most of it.”

We helped Leanne to learn to control her temper and inspired her to take pride in her talents and potential.

We gave her a second chance.

You can help us to give a second chance and make a real difference to young people today and in the future by supporting our
